

Friday, September 19

Dear Father in Heaven, we give you praise and thanksgiving for your wonderful creation and unending blessings. We are grateful to have memories of your unending blessings. Father, you have shown us unconditional love in our lives; please guide us to reflect your love. You have given us never ending love with some of our relationships. These earthly loves are mirrors of your own love for us. Thank you for that love. Amen.

Saturday, September 20

Lord, for those of us struggling at our jobs right now, help us find new motivation and greater sense of purpose at work. Help us to find joy in what we do again and inspire us to rise above negativity and share grace with others. Amen.

Sunday, September 21

Gift giving God, you are a generous God. You gave us life as a gift. You gave your life on the cross, also a gift. You give us the gift of eternal life, with no strings attached. Thank you. We want to give our lives away too. Amen.

Monday, September 22

Dear Lord, we pray we will be an instrument of your love, service, and gratitude to all those we encounter. Help us to always look to you for the courage and fortitude to help others. Amen.

Tuesday, September 23

Dear God, you have blessed us beyond our imaginations. You sent your son, Jesus, to us, and he gave his life to save us. Saying thank you for the greatest blessings ever seems so little in return, but, Lord, we are so thankful and so grateful for what you did for us. Thank you for all the blessings you have given us. We pray, Holy Spirit that you will help us be a blessing to others and help us share what you have provided. In your holy name, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, we pray. Amen.

Wednesday, September 24

Heavenly Father, there are infinite worldly objects that are curious and intriguing that divert our attention from walking in your light. Father, please provide us with pure hearts and self-control so that these worldly objects do not draw us away from our constant awareness of Your presence. Amen.

Thursday, September 25

Dear Lord, thank you for the many blessings you have bestowed upon us, and help us to share our good fortune with others through self-sacrifice and service, and to spread your love in our daily lives. Amen.

Friday, September 26

Holy Spirit, help us to impart the love and compassion of our Lord by sharing our resources, time and skills to those who struggle, are hungry, homeless or sick. Each one of us has something to give that cannot be given by others. Guide us to answer someone’s plea and be a blessing, one life at a time. Amen.

Saturday, September 27

Father, we are so grateful for all that you have given us. Remove any hindrances in our hearts that keep us from giving generously and sacrificially. We confess that we don’t know what that may look like sometimes. Open our hearts, minds, and hands to bless others as you have generously blessed us. Help us to be content with what we have and fill us with hearts of compassion, empathy, love and generosity to others. Amen.

Sunday, September 28

Heavenly Father, it is easy to get out of the routine of reading your word at times. Please guide us to re-establish the daily habit of studying the Bible so that we may grow in faith in you. Lead us to a Bible study where we can grow our faith in a community of Christians. Amen.

Monday, September 29

Dear Father in Heaven, it is always a blessing to address you as ‘Father’. We praise your name for all your Creation and many wonderful works to help save your people. Today we are so thankful for the prayers you have heard and answered in our lives. As David said so often in the Psalms, you are our refuge, in joy and in sorrow. We ask your blessings on all who are seekers today, that they may find Your mercy, love and grace. And in so doing, remember who You are and praise Your name. Amen

Tuesday, September 30

Dear Father in Heaven, as we acclimate to our school-year routines, it is a new beginning, a time to make things happen. We pray for all students across our area to look for the positive, strive for what is good and grow in faith. May you bless them as they dive deep into their studies. Amen.

Monday, September 1 – Labor Day

God, we thank you for the gifts and talents that you have bestowed upon us that allow us to work and care for our families. We thank you for the opportunity to work, and we thank you for this holiday to rest from our work. We also pray that you would provide new employment opportunities for those who are without work. Amen.

Tuesday, September 2

God, we pray for healing today, for those who are sick either physically or mentally. Wash them with your healing touch that they might glorify your name to others. Jesus, we pray for a healing miracle today, Amen.

Wednesday, September 3

Dear Heavenly Father, we lift up all your children who are students. Give them focus and a good attitude, and surround them with friends who will lift them up and make them better people. May they shine Your light into their world, and see Your light in others as well. Bless their teachers, staff, and administrators with patience, kindness, understanding, and discernment. Lastly, we ask that you continue to extend your loving grace to all the parents and remind us that we are all your beloved children whom you love oh-so-much, even on the bad days. May all our efforts give glory to Your kingdom. In your Son’s most precious name we pray, Amen.

Thursday, September 4

Father, teach us to take up words of grace toward everyone and to contain the spiteful words. Teach us to love even when things go wrong and to rejoice when someone gets what we thought we needed. Teach us to be open to learning what you are trying to teach us and to be patient and kind when we are tired. Above all - Thank you for your never ending Grace, Love and Patience. In the Holy and precious name of Jesus. Amen.

Friday, September 5

Heavenly Father, please guide our thoughts, our lips and our actions in the ways of peace. May all we think, do and say reflect your love for all your children. We pray for those in positions of power and leadership that they may set aside their agendas and focus their minds and hearts on your direction, so that our world may know compassion, unity and peace. Amen.

Saturday, September 6

God, bless each one of us with strength and peace in our hearts. When we see things that make us angry or sad, give us the wisdom to love others like you do, to be motivated by the things that motivate you. Then, God, use us for the transformation of this world. Amen.

Sunday, September 7

Heavenly Father, thank you for all the many blessings you’ve bestowed on us. Please continue to watch over and guide us in your path and forgive us for our many mistakes. Father, as we go about the day let us be more understanding of the people around us. We don’t know what their life situation is or what burden they may be carrying. Let us be instruments of your love and compassion as we work to be more empathetic. In Your name we pray, Amen.

Monday, September 8

O God, whose love is wider and deeper than the ocean, whose eyes see farther than the most distant universe, and whose understanding can penetrate even the greatest mystery, come and live in us this day. We invite you into our most private thoughts and into our very next decision. Inform and whisper your will into our waiting ear. As we listen for your voice, let us also feel your tender touch, and gaze into your very eyes. For it is there that we have experienced your only Son, Jesus, who walked with humanity, spoke your divinity, and breathes your very Holy Spirit upon all who choose to follow Him. Amen.

Tuesday, September 9

Father God, please bless the many groups of people who will come together this fall to study your word. Knit these communities together, drawing us closer to you and to each other. Enrich our conversations and help us to grow in our knowledge and love of you. Amen.

Wednesday, September 10

Spirit, in the beginning you blew over the formless waters, created beauty out of nothing, and made real your dream of having stuff to love. Blow through your church in a new way this week. Help us to pass on the love we have received, and bring us to a new beginning unafraid. Amen.

Thursday, September 11

Heavenly Father, we pray that you would be with all of those who serve as first responders and those who serve in the military. Protect them as they protect and care for us. Bless them and their families always. Amen.

Friday, September 12

Dear God, we thank you for the precious children of St. Luke’s. We pray that they would know how precious they are to you. Each day, draw these children closer to your heart. May our St. Luke’s community surround these children with love and forgiveness so they may experience your amazing grace. In Jesus’ name, Amen.

Saturday, September 13

Heavenly Father, our prayer life can be so much like a seesaw. So often it is up, when we are anxious, and down when things are going smoothly. Help us to have balance in our prayer life, as we mature in our faith. In Jesus name, Amen.

Sunday, September 14

Lord as we begin this season anew, we praise your name and ask for a renewed spirit in our hearts. Guide us this year into being the people and the church that you are calling us to be. Let your vision become our vision for the coming year and use us for your great glory Jesus, Amen.

Monday, September 15

Father God, thanks for this wonderful earth that you have blessed us to live in and care for. Teach us how to be better stewards of our planet in order that our children will live well after we have left. Thanks for your son, Jesus. Amen.

Tuesday, September 16

Dear God, we pray for all those who need your help. We pray for the people who need your guidance, and most of all, we pray that you will watch over us and our loved ones. Amen.

Wednesday, September 17

Lord, we pray for the unemployed among us. Open doors for a new job and renewed joy in the workplace. Help lovingly remind us all that our identity is in you and not in our vocation. Amen.

Thursday, September 18

Heavenly Father, thank you and those you have sent to lead us in your ways. Thank you for simplifying our lives so that we can appreciate peace, joy and love through you. We pray that you will continue to provide us with courage to face life’s challenges in simplicity, ever mindful of your presence. Amen.
